Our mission at Thomas A. Edison High School / John C. Fareira Skills Center is to provide a first-rate academic education while also offering classes that teach a student a trade. We want our students to go on to college but also have skills that will help them be ahead of the pack and have the ability to earn a living while going to school. It gives them the option and experience to enter into the working environment with industry certifications right out of high school. Edison also offers AP programs, sports, ELL accommodations as well as a Special Education staff to help any student. What sets us apart from the rest is our Career and Technical Education Department which offers 11 different vocational tracks which the students will be introduced to in their freshman year and by their sophomore year, they begin their three year journey in the class they chose.
